Event Description: Board member and volunteers will ask businesses to donate gift cards or items to be included in the raffle prize list. Some items may be purchased. Once the list is complete, we will mail out a letter to all of our supporters. This letter will include information about our organization and what the funds raised will go towards.

Raffle tickets are kept in a large plastic bin. The drawing will be held at the Pet Placement Center on Saturday, July 30th, 2016. A board member will randomly draw 1 ticket out of the bin per prize available while another board member records who won what prize. You do not have to be present to win. You will receive a phone call if you won a prize and can then choose if you want pick it up in person or have it mailed to you.
