Should all final five ticket holders unanimously agree to splitting the grand prize of $10,000, each final ticket holder will then receive $2,000 and the raffle will be completed. Should the final five not unanimously agree to split the prize, one by one drawing of the final five tickets will continue until a single ticket remains. The holder of this winning ticket will then receive the grand prize of $10,000. Final five ticket holders do not need to be present to win. When the final five ticket holders are determined at the event, should a final five ticket holder not be present, they will be contacted by phone to obtain their consent or refusal in splitting the prize.

Secondary prizes of $125 will be awarded to every fiftieth ticket drawn. Winners of secondary prizes do not need to be present to win.

Tickets will be drawn out of an acrylic drum with a crank for even rotation of the tickets. Tickets will be drawn by Coalition For Kids staff members and event volunteers.
