Event Description: Participants will purchase a numbered ticket (1-300) for $50.00. A corresponding barrel of numbered balls is established. Balls are drawn out of the barrel one-by-one until only 3 balls remain. The Last ball drawn wins the grand prize of $5,000.00, the next to last ball wins $1,000.00, and the third from last ball wins $500.00 (total cash prizes of $6,500 versus revenue of $15,000-300 balls at $50.00/ball).

A disinterested "Master of Ceremonies" conducts the reverse draw. Door prizes to non-winning numbers are given throughout the event. All balls, after drawing from barrel, are placed on a numbered grid corresponding to that number to insure all 300 balls are accounted for.

Winners of the 3 grand, ie cash, prizes do not have to be present to win. winners of door prizes must be in attendance to win.

Social Security numbers, names and addresses of the 3 cash winners are collected upon exchange of the prizes. A 1099 MISC is issued to each of the winners.
