Event Description: We will sell necklaces throughout the evening for $5.00 each or 5 for $20.00. Then at the end of the live auction, the auctioneer will ask all the people to stand who have purchased necklaces. Then he will eliminate the standing people by a random and blind process. The auctioneer will say people with an odd number of necklaces to sit down, or ones with no red beads to sit, etc. until only one person remains standing. That person will get 1/3 of the money collected from the sale of the necklaces.
