Event Description: There is be a grid constructed in a field adjacent to the football field. the grid will be marked vertically and horizontally with numbers and letters. The grid will also be fenced. Two cows will be turned into the fenced grid to graze and then eventually drop a cow patty. Whatever square the cow patty lands on will correspond with the ticket numbers and that will determine the winner. We will have three judges that will make sure which square the cow drop lands.

The winner does not have to be present to win.
