Event Description: The gaming event will be conducted by making chances available for sale at Appalachian Bear Rescue's fundraising event, Bear Necessities. All chances will be in the form of a small stuffed bear. No virtual chances will be sold. ABR will make chances available for sale at the Bear Necessities event and will keep careful records of all chances sold. Must be present and participate in gaming event to win. Any person who sells chances will be ineligible to enter the gaming event or win any prize. Those who purchase a chance will compete in a game of Heads or Tails. The Emcee of the Bear Necessities Event, Sam Venable, will flip a coin multiple times. Each time, each participant chooses heads or tails. If participant chooses correctly, participant remains standing. If participant chooses incorrectly, the participant sits and is no longer in the game. The Emcee will continue to flip a coin until only one winning participant is still standing. That participant will win the prize.. Participants must actively play the game, so they must be present to play and win. The prize to be awarded is an original Robert Tino painting of a bear. Winner will be responsible for transporting the painting from Townsend, TN.
