Event Description: The gaming event will be conducted by making raffle tickets available for sale at the public events ABR attends and conducts within Tennessee. All tickets will be in the form of physical printed media. No virtual tickets will be sold. ABR will start making tickets available for sale when it obtains approval to conduct the raffle. ABR will make tickets available for sale at events where it has an employee, director, or other trusted volunteer present so that ABR ensures that it keeps careful record of the raffle tickets sold. Any person who agrees to sell or sells raffle tickets will be ineligible to enter the raffle or win any prize. The records will be transmitted and kept in a secure location at ABR's facility. The winning ticket(s) will be physically drawn from a box on Saturday, November 24, 2018. ABR Business and Events Director, Lisa Philippen, will draw the winning Ticket(s). The Winner(s) will not be required to be present. Raffle winner(s) will be responsible for transporting the items from Townsend, TN.
