Event Description: The Cash for Kids event sells numbered tickets. A ping pong ball with the corresponding number on each ticket is placed in a rotating drum. As the event goes, a board member or staff draws from the rotating ping pong ball machine and hands the ping pong ball to the MC to announce to our guests. The MC announces the numbered and another staff person pulls the off the game board. The accountant and executive assistant both document throughout the evening to insure accuracy. The final ticket left on the board wins the grand prize. Contestants do not have to be present to win.
