Event Description: Numbered raffle tickets will be sold at the event capturing the name of the purchaser and phone number. The purchaser of the winning ticket need not be present. All tickets sold and unsold will be accounted for the day before the time of the drawing at the end of the day. The winner will submit a successful Federal Firearms background check at the Federal Firearms Licensed dealer or gun shop with the Clay Shoot Chairman. If the winner is unsuccessful at the background check, a cash prize of the same value of the eventual weapon to be raffled will be offered. The drawing will be from a solid colored, barrel shaped, plastic container. The individual tickets not visible to the person drawing the tickets. The volunteer drawing the ticket will be a board member of ETVMA, or the organization's president, if present. The prize will be delivered to the winner within 30 days or as soon as practical within the confines of the successful firearms background check.
